

What does the Big Society mean for the third sector?

Roundtable discussions

August & September 2010 Throughout the West Midlands

RAWM, in partnership with Social Enterprise West Midlands and West Midlands European Network, is holding a series of round table events looking at the implications of the Big Society agenda for the voluntary sector and local communities.

The 7 events will be held in venues across the West Midlands and are aimed at the voluntary sector, community groups, social enterprises and local authorities.

Booking forms are available from RAWM's website.
